

Expressions of Gratitude

Our friends have not failed to share our loss and help lift our broken hearts! In this hour of bereavement, your words have planted treasures in our lives, gifts of friendship, sympathy and compassion. We are comforted and sustained by your kindness. May the richness of God's grace surround you always. The family says, "Thank you." To our many friends who, during this time of crisis, understand it, and the gratitude to accept it. A great thanks to the staff of Wexner, The Ohio State University Hospital - East and much thanks to the ICU Staff. A special thanks to the staff at Capital City Hospice. Also, a thank you to Marlan J. Gary Funeral Home.

To Those Whom I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.
