

In Loving Memory of Alvin Maurice Johnson

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now I'm free, I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and felt it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief, don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee, God wanted me now -
He set me free...

Obituary

Alvin Maurice Johnson was born to Murphy Johnson, Sr. and Imo Jean (Winbush) Johnson on July 20, 1964, in Columbus, Ohio. He was the baby of six and affectionately known as "Batman" by his family.

Alvin was a product of Columbus Public Schools and attended Eleventh Avenue Elementary, Yorktown Jr. High and Whetstone High School. Alvin was very talented and while in his woodshop class, he made his own guitar in the shape of a unicorn. He also had a love for music which included listening to George Clinton and Rick James.

His family would always remind him that as a child, he would always tell them to "CUT THOSE LIGHTS OUT!!"

Anyone who knew Alvin, knew he had a very gentle soul. On Saturday, March 25, 2023, Alvin's soul was finally at rest.

He is preceded in death by parents; Murphy and Imo Jean Johnson, brother; Keith Johnson, sisters; Lisa Johnson and Linda Finch, niece; Kristian Johnson.

I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me on that Day and not to me only, but unto all those also who love His appearing.
