Your Mother

Although you cannot hear her voice or see her smile no more, your mother walks beside you still just as she did before.

She listens to your stories and she wipes away your tears;
she wrap her arms around you and she understand your fears.

It's just she isn't visible to see with human eye, but talk to her in silence and her spirit will reply.
You'll feel the love she has for you - you'll hear her in your heart; she's left her human body but your souls will never part.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Don't think of her as gone away -
her JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets - this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

In the Hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost -
And she was loved so much.
- Ellen Brenneman
