*Do Not Stand
at My Grave and Weep*

Do not stand at my grave
and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken
in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

in the Sanctuary choir.

Tommie met Ike while she attended Bluefield State University before her family relocated to Columbus, Ohio in the mid-1960s. After settling in Columbus, she married the love of her life on August 3, 1968. Ike and Tommie had two girls, Tara Lynn and Tameca Alicia.

Tommie worked for more than 25 years at Nationwide Insurance as a Supervisor before retiring to begin her role as Nanny and caregiver to her three granddaughters Kaya, Jaida, Gabrielle and great-niece Chloë.

Tommie and Ike were Columbus socialites, attending cabarets with members of the Men Uniques and hosting card parties with their family and friends. Tommie was an avid bowler and was active with the Columbus leagues until her retirement. Tommie and Ike loved traveling to Vegas and going on Caribbean cruises.

Tommie was known for her impeccable style and loved fine jewelry. She hosted and attended numerous family gatherings, most notably her annual Thanksgiving dinners.

Tommie was preceded in death by her parents David, Sr. and Beatrice Love; siblings David Love, Jr., Drucilla (Juan) Love, Edith Love; and nephews Marcus Love and Zac Wolman. Tommie will be sorely missed by her husband, Ike, daughters Tara Boone, Tameca (Douglas) Plair, granddaughters Kaya Boone, Jaida Plair and Gabrielle Plair; sisters Imogene Fields, Elizabeth (Susie)(Arthur, Jr.) Cook, brothers Ronald (Tina) Love, and James (Jessica) Love; sister-in-law Brenda Hill, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
