Aunt Barbara,

It would be a lie,

if I said we were ready to say goodbye.

This is hard and we 're going to miss you, because you were that aunt that we could go to.

*On today our tears flow like rain,
but there 's no more suffering and no more pain.*

*Although we are no longer together,
we will cherish you and your love forever.*

Thoughtfully,

Your nieces and nephews. (Created by Vikki Perry)

Celebration for*

Never Let Go

When the sun shines bright
on a sad gloomy day,
I see you.

Although you may not be here in sight,
your spirit is forever with us.

"Hey Baby"

Is what I will always remember, softly spoken from the voice of a beautiful woman with chocolate brown skin, shinning like gold.

Through endless love, laughs, hugs,
and cries
you were always by my side.

Thinking of the good and bad times,
I am holding on to the memories that I will never let go.

From your Great Granddaughter, Donyae

Obituary

Barbara Joan Noble, known to those who loved her as "Bobby Jo" was born January 3, 1937 in Little Rock, Arkansas. She was raised by her grandparents, Grace and Louis Lee, along with their 13 children. She grew up with her aunts and uncles who were more like sisters and brothers to her.

She attended catholic school at St. Bartholomew in Little Rock before moving to Columbus, Ohio at age 18. Barbara worked at Mills Diner and The State Hospital before finding her career as a EKG Technician at Mount Carmel West. She worked there for over 30 years before retiring in 1999.

Bobby Jo is preceded in death by her parents, Eloise and Nathaniel Noble; sisters, Beverly Dixon and Patricia Noble Langston-Steele; brother, Nathaniel Noble; niece, Kimberly Lescalleet; grandson, Adam Hudgins and her Loving husband, Harry Cambell whom she loved dearly.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her one and only son, Eric DeBerry; grandchildren, Devin, Danielle, Keanna, KeRon, and Wade; great-grandchildren, Adam Jr., Victor, Dalas, Donyae, Joseph Jr., Kazion, KeZohn, KyLeah, King Mar-La, Faith, Xavior and Trayvon; great-great grandchildren, Taryn, Terrence Jr and Kianna. A Host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, many others who lovingly called her "Grandma", and her last living uncle, Shannon Lee.

Bobby Jo was a sweet, fun loving woman who didn't mind saying what was on her mind! She enjoyed playing cards, bingo, bowling and even played basketball while in Catholic School. Some of her favorite TV shows included Family Fued, The Golden Girls and Walker Texas Ranger. She will be missed dearly by all of us who loved her! And on today, her Birthday we celebrate her life!!!
