Obituary

Clyde was given the title "The Man, The Myth, The legend" by his granddaughter Samerrah who he fashionably nicknamed "Jack". He was a son, brother, husband, father, pawpaw, great-grandfather, father-in-law, brother-in-law, uncle, cousin and friend to many.

Clyde worked for the Timken company for 17 years. He then went on to work for the Franklin County Sheriff for 28 years and retired May of 2015.

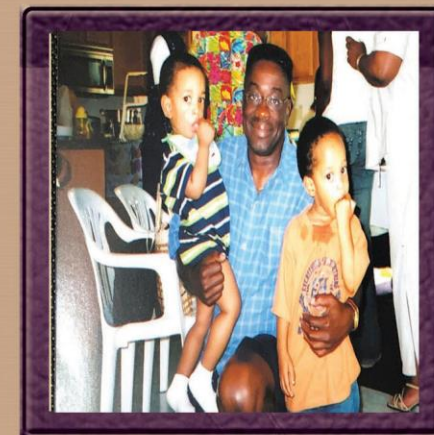

Clyde excelled in various positions such as; Sergeant, Detective, and Supervisor. He truly enjoyed his job and co-workers. After retirement, he maintained friendships with Jerry Posers, Mike Turner and Mike Powell just to name a few. He had so many! Clyde gave respect and was given respect from those he worked with and his friend Chuck Osborne.

Clyde earned many awards and commendations during his years of service such as; Homeland Security, Michigan and Ohio BCI Drug Task Force, HIDTA Drug Task Force, FBI Special Investigation Unit and many more. A job well done! Clyde was filled with so much pride when his son and namesake, Clyde Phillips II joined him at the Franklin County Sheriff Department before he retired.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, Are filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, The way you did today
While thinking of the many things, We didn't get to say
I know how much you love me, As much as I love you
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too
But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand

And said my place was ready, In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind, All those I dearly love
But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne

He said this is eternity, And all I promised you Today your life on earth is past, But here it starts anew
I promise no tomorrow, For today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past
So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart

The day of one's birth is a good day for the believer, but the day of death is the greatest day that a Christian can ever experience in this world, because that is the day he goes home, the day he walks across the threshold, the day he enters the Father's house.

“And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.”

Jeremiah 3:15
