Obituary

Dan Taylor Sr., a beloved member of the Mansfield community, peacefully passed away on December 13, 2023, at the age of 71. He was born on July 18, 1952, in Brownsville, Tennessee to the late Prince Albert and Onger Mae (Bond) Taylor. Dan was a highly respected and cherished individual, leaving behind a legacy that will forever be remembered.

Dan led a fulfilling life dedicated to his family, career, and passions. He worked diligently for the Luntz Co. as a Crane Operator in the scrap yard industry, showcasing his unwavering commitment and exceptional skills. With a strong work ethic, he provided for his loved ones and set an inspiring example for future generations.

Family was at the heart of Dan's existence. He cherished every moment spent with his children, Savalas (Lori) Taylor, Dan Taylor Jr., Antonio Harris, Shenee Harris and LeVonda Meade; Among his loved ones were also his sisters Jean (Taylor) Dotson and Crista Taylor; a brother, Elmo (Shirley) Taylor; 2 sisters-in-law, Viola Bond and Mable Taylor; a brother-in-law, James Lee; He will be lovingly remembered by his 14 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who were blessed to have him in their lives.

Dan held fond memories of his family that preceded him in death including his parents, Prince Albert and Onger Mae (Bond) Taylor; wife, Mary (Meade) Taylor; and siblings, Eileen, Frank Petty Sr., Evern Lee, Fred Taylor, Eddie Taylor, James Bond and Joseph Taylor.

Dan's passions were many, and they brought immense joy to his life. He had an inherent talent for working on cars, and his hands skillfully transformed vehicles into prized possessions. Dan found true happiness in spending quality time with his family, sharing laughter, stories, and creating lasting memories. He possessed an infectious love for music and dance, especially admiring the works of Tu Pac. An exceptional storyteller, his narrative prowess captivated listeners, leaving them longing for more tales from his rich life.

Although Dan has departed this earthly realm, his spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. May his soul find eternal peace, and may his legacy inspire us to cherish our families, pursue our passions, and embrace the beauty of life just as he did.

Rest in Peace, Dan Taylor Sr.
