A Life Well Lived

Delvon Kencaid Wilkerson Jr., born March 17, 2003 to his loving parents Kimberley Key Taylor and Delvon Kencaid Wilkerson Sr.

Anyone who had the chance to meet Delvon, without a doubt met an unforgettable love spirit. Delvon was always willing to listen, learn, help and most importantly offer safe, non-judgemental support and love. He would offer to anyone in need, a true friend indeed.

Delvon enjoyed the outdoors, playing basketball, music, shopping, hanging out and video games. His most favorite times were in his room spending time with his siblings, cousins and friends.

Delvon volunteered with Sonya's Cancer Caregivers Center, Gospel Lighthouse Church, and also helped with many back to school events as well as serving meals to the homeless and avidly contributed to digital and gaming creation. He was also extremely gifted in his landscaping business. He was excited about his pending employment as an Appliance Technician.

Delvon Kencaid Wilkerson Jr. was called from labor to rest. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Larry Pendergrass; grandmother, Janice Hale; great grandmothers, Deborah King (Big Mama), Thelma Pendergrass, Ethel Edwards; great grandfather, Donald Edwards; uncles, Kendrick D. Wilkerson, also known as his most definitely favorite uncle "Moo Moo", Sir (Billy) Williams Tims, Jeffery Thomas; aunts, Santia Edwards, Ashley Mitchell, Big D, Kendra Ayers; cousins, Dontey Wiley, Ervena Broomfield, Brea Hammonds, Anasia Green, Chandale "Mugzy" Miller; special friend, Dean (Dino) Owens.

THE BROOKS FAMILY

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.
