Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me...a little - but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.*

Obituary

Donna Annette Tribune was born June 4th, 1959, to Loretta Turner (Harris) and Donald Tribune in Columbus, Ohio.

Donna was loved by many who enjoyed her bubbly, fun loving personality. She loved to cook and host gatherings at her place. She would be surrounded by family and friends while laughing and eating good food. She also loved spending as much time as possible with her grandchildren, reading them books and playing with them in the backyard.

Donna was always a caring, headstrong, and courageous individual who would always go the extra mile to ensure her loved ones always felt cherished and protected, whether it be her family or her country. She lived a fulfilling and satisfying life where she participated in many activities such as sports, cheerleading, as well as competing in beauty pageants. She then later went on to serve as a proud member of the United States Army where she took a great deal of pride in serving her country.

Donna is preceded in death by her mother, Loretta Turner (Harris) , father, Donald Tribune and uncle Raynol (Bernie) Jackson. She leaves to cherish her legacy her daughter, Veronica Saunders; son, Vaughndell Brooks; brother's Erick Tribune, Richard Phillips and Frank Harris; grandchildren, Imagery Brooks, Janiece Dolman, Christian Davis and Carter Saunders as well as a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
