I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free*

Obituary

Donnie Crowder II, affectionately known as "Don Don", peacefully passed away on August 11th, 2022.

He was preceded in death by his parents; Donnie and Cheryl Crowder.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his brother; David M.Vernon III, uncles; Cecil Miller, Keith Miller, and James (Patricia) Crowder, aunts; Deborah Walker, Reneta (Ernest) Jones, Janice (Bernard) Abraham and Deborah (Carl) Rhodes, girlfriend; Christina Coulverson. Goddaughter, many cousins, family members and friends.

"Don Don" was known for his infectious energy. He always lit up every room he entered. One of his favorite sayings was "What you doin?". He was the best cousin to many, an Uncle Don Don and a big cousin and nephew to many, the cool friend to many, and also a very special companion to those very close to him.

He enjoyed life and often only wanted to be around those who did as well! He enjoyed life, was a "smooth talker" and always knew the right things to say. He was a movie fanatic! Even when the movie didn't look like it would be worth watching, he'd talk you into watching it and before it was over, you'd realize "this was a pretty good movie" and he'd reply, "see I told you, what we watching next" If you ever needed a snack, he was good for it! And if you ever wondered where your kid got that snack that you told them they couldn't have, it was from "Don Don".

Donnie loved to look good, always dressed from head to toe. He loved playing spades and knew he was the best hands down. Got cake or ice cream? If you did, you didn't have much because he loved his sweets. Anyone that knew him had the pleasure of laughing a lot, sometimes until you cried, the pleasure of feeling good, the pleasure of being heard and the pleasure of learning something new.

Even when in pain, Donnie cracked jokes and made others around him feel good. He will always be remembered for his smile, his playful spirit, and the love he had for those who loved him.
