The family of Earline Ross would like to thank those of you who sent her flowers, get well wishes, called her, visited with a heartfelt smile, brought her communion, especially those who gave your time with home care, showering your love so graciously. May God richly bless you!

God Has You Now

To a Loving Mother;

We will miss you always. Even through the bad times, momma we still love you and through the good times, you are loved. Even when we were bad and the switch was always taller than you. After you were done, we loved you. God has you now, one of His Beautiful Angels. You are still our mother, sister, auntie and grandmother. Earline, we love you. God has you now.

Obituary

Earline Ross, a beloved member of the Columbus community and a retiree from General Motors, will be celebrated for a life well-lived and memories cherished. Born in Maybeury, WV on June 29, 1944, Earline was a graduate of East High School in Columbus, Ohio and excelled in her career at General Motors.

Family was at the center of Earline's world, and she found joy in spending time with her children and grandchildren. An accomplished cook, she would often gather her loved ones around the table to enjoy her delicious meals. A devoted member of Trierstone Missionary Baptist Church, Earline generously served in the Nurses Ministry, Usher Board, and shared her beautiful voice in the church choir.

Earline's genuine love for literature led her on many adventures through the pages of her books and the challenge of word searches. She touched the lives of many and will be remembered for her kind heart, warm smile, beautiful dimples, and unwavering faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Early Houston English Sr. and Corrine Moore English.
