

Acknowledgement

If you dropped by to say hello or called on the phone or sent a text; may have been flowers sent or a card to show you cared; even if you didn't come at all but remembered us in prayer. Please know all the kindness we've received is sincerely appreciated and we are grateful for your presence here today, and we love you.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

Obituary

A Life Well Lived...

Clarence Henry Gray was born February 15, 1939 to the late Ray Gray and Katie Tandie in Louisville, Kentucky. He departed this life on Sunday, January 17, 2021 peacefully at home.

Clarence grew up in Louisville before venturing out at a young age to move to Columbus, Ohio where he worked and lived for the rest of his life. He worked and retired from the Timken Company. After retiring, he opened, owned, operated Ron's Detail Shop for many years. It was his pride and joy and was the community business that stood out in the neighborhood it served.

Clarence was a "man's man", the epitome of provider and protector: taking care of his family was paramount. He was well loved and loved well.

Clarence was preceded in death by his loving wife of 42 years, Myrtice Gray; baby girl, Martine "Peanut" Gray; son, Lazeth Moore; daughter, Karen Moore; and sister, Barbara Nell Pittman.

Clarence is survived by his children, Justin Gray, Todd Gray, Lavern Moore, Nita Moore, Clarence Gray II, Debra Gray, Kenneth Whiting, and Nalea Whiting-Cobb; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many friends.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*

John 11:25-26
