The Angels

The angels came to visit my uncle last night and now he is at peace with the laughter and the time I spent with him.

I miss him already, it's a sad time for all of us. But our love for him will be safe in our hearts. I am glad he is in no more pain and he will be with loved ones who are there with him.

Love you always Uncle Shannon,
~Nijha

Obituary

Shannon M Groves, age 46 went to be with the Lord on Thursday March 3rd ,2022 in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio.

Shannon was born March 18, 1976 to his lovely parents Ann Groves and Joe Groves. Shannon graduated from St Francis DeSales High School playing football all four years, being a starter on his football team, showing off his amazing football talent. Shannon later then went to Ohio Dominican University where he graduated with his Associates Degree. Following college Shannon worked for the State of Ohio.

Shannon loved helping people. Shannon is preceded in death by his loving mother Ann Groves grandfather Ralph Wrenn and Aunt Alice Smith survived by his father Joe Groves. Special Family Friend Mother Mama Renee Siblings: Aqua, Lamar, Timothy, Sonia, Joel and Mark. Extended Siblings: Saneer Robinson, Doug Johns. Aunt and Uncle: Teresa and Russell Beckley. Niece and Nephews: Nijha, Marlee, Destiny, Brandon, LaQuintta, Vashon and Vanesha. Cousins: Keisha, Monica, Jackie Ebony, Laquana and Keyon and a host of relatives and friends.

He was loving, caring and funny person everyone who knew Shannon could say they have a funny story to tell. Football Sundays was his favorite, very big on his sports especially football. He would watch some Basketball as well. He always loved messing with his younger sister Aqua. He adored his loving mother Ann. Shannon loved being around friends and family. Shannon is known for his funny jokes; his life may have been cut shorter than expected but he lived a full one.
