His Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of him as gone away, his journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.*

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost, and he was loved so much

The Obituary

Jamir Tayshun Hess, affectionately known as "Jay" by family and friends, was born on June 22, 2004 in Cherry Point, North Carolina at Halyburton Naval Hospital. Jay was born to Marine Corps parents Vincent Hess Jr. and Rogerlynn Hess. Jay was the youngest of the two boys.

Jay graduated from Madison Comprehensive High School in 2022. Jay had many dreams. He wanted to be an CEO of his company, he wanted to be a world known chef, he wanted to be an historian and a car collector. Jay loved animals and the outdoors.

Jay loved sports. His favorite NFL team was the Carolina Panthers and his favorite player was Cam Newton. He could give you random facts about any subject that he is talking about.

Jay was a character. Jay didn't just come to the party, he was the party. Jay wanted everyone to be happy. To know him was to love him and to when you got to know him, he gave you a nickname and he was either saying you smell like cheese or you ugly dude, but that's how he showed you love.

Jay had so much energy he was always looking for the next thing to do. He had aspirations of being an actor, rapper and a model. His current project was becoming a welder. In his life his favorite job was working at Bentley's Tree Service as a "lumberjack."

Jay left this earthly world on March 29, 2023. He was preceded in death by grandfather; Vincent Hess Sr., grandmothers; Mary Elders, and Tammy Gamble, great grandmothers; Quillie Jones and Elsie Davis, great grandfather; Roger Corry Jr., cousins; Blake Hess and Kesi Hess.

Left to cherish his memories are parents; Vincent and Rogerlynn Hess, brother; Tariq Hess, grandparents; Evon Johnson and Constance (James) Johnson, great grandmother; Willa Mingle, great grandfather; Robert Hess, aunts; Daisha Lyell and Marquita Johnson, uncles; Tyrice Taylor, Steve (Jayna) King, Chad (Domino) King, Bobby Gordan, Johnnie B. (Tineka) Gibbs and special cousin; Carole Davis and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

In the words of Jay "let's go eat and play some spades."
"Mom you don't have to worry about me any more, I am ok."

*On June 22, 2004
You were born as a big blue boy.*

*Your dad was yelling and confused 'cuz
he didn't know what to do.*

Through the years you grew tall and strong you were Muhammad Ali and a Black Russian.

*You grew and grew some more,
that your personality busted through the door.*

*Your smile was bright and laugh was hearty,
Boy you know you were the life of the party.*

Your growing stopped and there was nothing anyone could do

Your earthly story ends here for you.

*Go my I birdie, fly high in the sky
Be my guide, my diamond up high.*

So until this next life, where we will meet again

I wanted to say I love you now, forever and always til the end.

Mommie

He Only Takes The Best

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
so he put his arms around you,
and whispered "Come to me".

With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
hardworking hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
