Obituary

Lakeisha Dionne Clark, lovingly known as "Keisha C" and respectfully known as "Coach KC" was born June 4, 1980 to Jacqueline Clark & Tyrone Jackson. Keisha transitioned from this life on December 20, 2022. She now rests peacefully in the arms of our Heavenly Father.

Keisha graduated from Marion Franklin High School and later received her Associates Degree in Business Administration from the American Intercontinental University. Keisha had countless pursuits, she and her sister, Juevonna would humorously refer to themselves as "Jacks of All Trades, Masters of none".

Keisha was passionate about pursuing music and was a gifted lyricist & songstress. Keisha enjoyed dancing and we all coined her the life of the party.

Keisha's most recent aspiration was touching the lives of others through motivational speech. Keisha embraced her natural ability to inspire, motivate, heal, and encourage others. She would often say "I've got to quit denying the world my greatness". A phenomenal woman, that was Keisha C. Keisha we all were deeply impacted by your strength, courage, wisdom, ambition, passion, fearlessness, and love.

1 Corinthians 13:1, "And now these three remain faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love". Keisha's love as a mother for her son Cameron "CJ" Reid Jr. was her greatest motivation and proudest achievement.

2 Timothy 4:7 "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I kept the faith" - well done Keisha C.

Keisha is preceded in death by Grandfather James Clark, Grandmother Joyce Clark, Aunt Janet Marie Hill, Cousins Dezjuano Johnson Jr., Ania Clark, & Baby Sam Woods.

"Everyone's life is measured by the power that individual has to make the world better"- Booker T. Washington.

Keisha's legacy will continue to live on through the lives of her devoted cousins, cherished Cali Peeps, as well as a host of beloved family & friends.

Thanks for My Child, Lakeisha Dionne Clark

Written by Mother Jacqueline Clark

Keisha C. was beautiful, courageous, strong willed, outgoing, talented, and smart. As the eldest child she always played her part.

She had a spirit that was ridiculous, In her rap music she sure would cuss. When she graduated high school, she went to Cali to pursue her rap dream. There she found out life ain't always what it seems.

She never got her big record deal. But everything she wrote and rapped about was heart felt and real.

Keisha and her sister Juevonna had a bond you wouldn't believe. Those two together, there was nothing they couldn't achieve.

The love they had for each other was truly amazing after all, I was their Mom's, I did all the raising.

Her little Bro Julien who everyone calls Rock was more like her son she took control over him as soon as his life begun.

I can not leave out the two loves of her life CJ, her baby; and Jasmine, who was like her own daughter. The love she had for those two never ever faltered.

Then there is Juelz Amir her only little nephew, there was absolutely nothing in the entire world for him she would not do.

I told her when she raps in heaven the angels might frown. Unless there is a room up there where she can really get down.

Keisha did suffer the pain was too much. She would lay there and cry and ask for God's touch. Her battle is over the victory she has won.

Sleep in heavenly peace my beautiful, sweet child. Sleep in heavenly peace your body and soul have now been released.

Juano, Janet, Soldierman (Debo to you); Keisha I will send, waiting with outstretched arms to welcome her on in

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth —
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

2 Corinthians 1:3

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey
that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let go.
