LOOK FOR ME IN RAINBOWS

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me,
as you know I loved you.

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset,
when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me
and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you,
when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me,
as you know I loved you.

Just wish me near to you,
And I'll be there with you.

Obituary

Lois Neely was born on September 22, 1942 in Eastman, Georgia to the union of Edward and Juanita Dupree. Lois was the eldest sister to Barbara Lattimore and from early on she displayed a strong sense of family unity.

Lois attended schools in Eastman, Georgia until she moved to Cleveland, Ohio where she received her General Education Diploma in 1983. Lois was a responsible young lady that earned the love and respect of her family members because of the way she loved and cared for others.

Shortly after moving to Cleveland, Lois married Jonah Glover and to this union was born four (4) children. Lois met Andrew Ballard and together they had a son, Darrell Glover.

In the early eighties, Lois relocated to Columbus Ohio, where she worked as a Phlebotomist at Grant Memorial Hospital until 2001. While in Columbus, Lois met and married the love of her life, Geffory Neely. Together Geffory and Lois were a beautiful example of both love and commitment. They were both faithful members of Rhema Christian Center. Lois remained a faithful member of Rhema Christian Center until her health began to fail.

Lois enjoyed laughing and making memories with her family. She also loved shopping and one of her favorite hobbies was finding nice and appealing items from her favorite thrift shoppes. Lois also took pleasure as a spokesperson for the AA\NA community where she attended many meetings and was a proud member who loved the program.

Lois entered into her eternal sleep peacefully surrounded by her loving daughters on Thursday, February 8, 2024.

Preceding her in death was her parents, Edward and Juanita Dupree; stepfather, Joe Hughes (Daddy Joe); sister, Barbara Lattimore; beloved husband, Geffory Neely; daughter, Jeanette Glover; loving aunt, Alta Mae; son, Jonah Glover, Jr. and granddaughter, Shalon Barnett.

Lois leaves to cherish her memory two loving daughters, Benita Dulaney (Anthony) and Debra Welch; one loving son, Darrell Glover; four granddaughters, Tamika Tuggle, Latosha Glover, Quanae Glover and Saige Glover; two grandsons, David Tabb and DeAndre Glover; nine great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
