Flowerbearers

Sydney Wilkins - Shania Ransom

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be;

So He put his arms around you
and whispered,

"Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away.

Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.

A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes the best!

Obituary

Marvin Eugene Wilkins was born on October 18, 1968 to Jacqueline Ransom and Milledge (Spoon) Wilkins Jr.

Marvin spent his early days attending Centennial High School, dominating the basketball court winning dunk contest he didn't even know about. A charismatic guy who also won Prom King. Marvin had the capacity to perform many skills, he would work on cars, even work with electrical lines. Marvin had so many interests from sports to cars to movies and he filled his life with everything he wanted around him. Marvin led a life of love. Through many experiences he became the person who understood what he valued most in life.

Marvin was a father, a brother, a son, an uncle, a cousin and a phone call away. Marvin always showed up and did whatever he could do to help any situation. Marvin lived from his spirit and loved from his heart. Marvin Impacted many lives and held value in a lot of those same ones. Although he will always be dearly missed, he has completed his mission and can finally rest easy. To those who know Marvin Know he loved you.

Marvin went home to be with the lord on February 1, 2023. He is preceded in death by his father; Milledge Wilkins Jr., aunt; Shirley Bias, grandmother; Reva Ransom and uncle; Mike Ransom.

Marvin is survived by his loving mother; Jacqueline Ransom, his only sister; Jacqueline (Antwain) Williams, children; Marvin (Latrisha) Wilkins, Stevante Wilkins, Sydnie (Davionne) Wilkins and Sheridyn Wilkins, grandchildren; Jerbrail Grhim Jr., Je'mari Wilkins, Marvin Wilkins III, Mar'Lèigha Wilkins and Syian Bleü Wilkins, nephews; Jaquan Williams and Antwain Reed Jr. and only niece; Jazzlynn Reed.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, Believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you.
