A Life Well Lived

On May 11, 1981, Monet Latiese Landrum was born to Lorraine Landrum and Joseph McIntyre in Columbus, Ohio. Monet transitioned from life to reward on April 6, 2024.

Monet was a born again believer. She attended Living Waters Faith Assembly International under the leadership of Apostles Joseph and Earline Clegg, who nurtured her spiritual growth.

Monet was a loving Mother, Daughter, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Cousin and Friend. Monet was a hardworking, dedicated woman, with an infectious smile. So many gravitated to her vivacious personality. There was never a dull moment with Monet. She was so energetic and ALWAYS the life of the party.

Monet is preceded in death by her father, Joseph McIntyre; grandparents, Jerry and Lavie Ervin and McIntyre grandparents; aunts, Donna Jean Ervin and Jerrie Hale; and uncle, Gregory Ervin.

Monet leaves to cherish her memory: two loving daughters, Micah and Myeisha Landrum; grandson, Kaedyn Holder; mother, Lorraine Landrum; two sisters, Loretta and Dionne Landrum; aunts, Shirley Ann Ervin, Karen (Anthony) Lee, and Yvonne (Gary) Gore; uncle, Kim Ervin; significant other, Kenneth Hardy; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, co-workers and lifelong friends.
