Obituary

On September 21, 1975 Anna Nikisha Coffman A.K.A Kish, was a blessing from the Lord to her father, the late David L Landrum and her mother, Diana Coffman- Stockton. Anna was born in Toledo, Ohio but at an early age moved to Columbus Ohio.

Anna gave her life to the Lord at the age of 11 at Mt Olive Baptist Church. Anna was honored to celebrate her introduction to society as a Victory Matron Debutante in 1992. In 1994 she graduated from Bishop Hartley High School. Following high school, she attended University of Toledo.

When she started her career, she started with health care, but later transitioned into education. Most recently Anna was a special needs educator for Columbus City Schools. If you knew Anna you knew she was the proud mother of two beautiful children who she loved dearly, her son Davon and her daughter Aniya Mae.

God blessed Anna (Kish) with alot of creative gifts and talents. She was truly a multipotentialite with a love for adventure and travel. In her spare time, she loved to immerse herself in genealogical research, not only for her own pleasure, but it brought her such joy to gift others with the knowledge of their ancestry. She also enjoyed event planning and decorating. She was an advocate for natural healing, cosmetic products and chemistry, creating her own line of cosmetics and products that she educated and shared with everyone. She had a love of horses and riding since she was a young woman.

Anna is preceded in death by her father; David L. Landrum, paternal grandmother; Myrtle Landrum, maternal grandmother; Anna M Hayden-Coffman and maternal grandfather; J.W. Henry.

Anna leaves to morn her death, her devoted mother; Diana Coffman Stockton, son; Davon Lee Coffman, daughter; Aniya Mae Coffman, one great aunt Essie Richardson and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me on that Day and not to me only, but unto all those also who love His appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8
