

Acknowledgement

We the family of Mr. Mark Anthony Prince are truly grateful for all the kindness and love displayed during this difficult time. Whether you sent a card, flowers, visited the family, called, or just said a prayer, we appreciate it and love you all.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

Repast

Obituary

Mark Anthony Prince was born to Dorethea Miller and Frank Gordon on February 14, 1967. Mark affectionately known as "Dino" was born on Valentine's Day and he was definitely a sweetheart.

Dino was a chef by trade and known for his delicious culinary dishes. He could make a meal out of whatever he found in your kitchen. His smile was contagious and when you would see him, you were always greeted with one.

Dino was anxiously awaiting a kidney transplant. He put up a long hard fight and he never let his illness prevent him from living his best life. His positive attitude and big heart poured out into everything he did. Family meant everything to him. He loved his wife and daughters tremendously.

He is preceded in death by his father, Frank Gordon; and grandparents, Merle and Maxine Prince.

He leaves to cherish his memories, loving wife, Sabrena Prince; daughters, Markita and Markayla Prince; bonus daughter, Betty Riggins; bonus son, Tristan (Shai'Ane) Fadis; grandbabies, Amariyah and Matro Fadis; mother-in-law, Erma "Maw Maw" Crowder; mother, Dorethea Miller; sister, Carmen Higgins; brother, William (Ebony) Prince; and a host of nieces and nephews, special nephews, Jamie and Eddie; and many friends. Mark will truly be missed by all those who knew and loved him.

Dino will be forever missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.

Footprints

*One night I dreamed a dream.
As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, One belonging to me and one to my Lord.*

*After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.*

*This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, when I needed You the most,
You would leave me."*

*He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you
Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*

I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
