I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

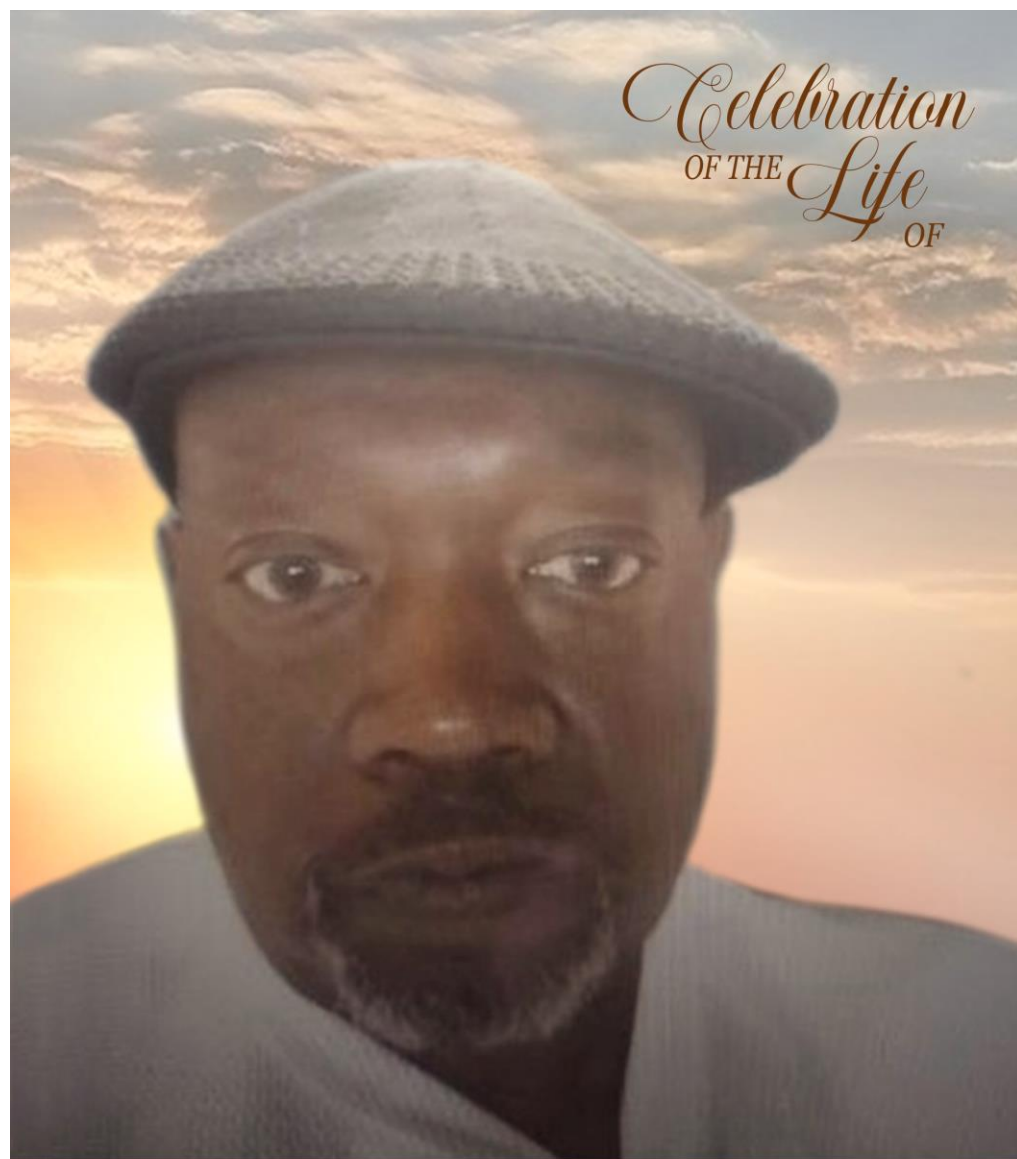

Healing Prayer

Jesus, let your presence manifest in this place, As we gather here to mourn our beloved, Paul, may you bring healing into our hearts. Be our alpha and omega in this Going Home Celebration. Let the things we share about our beloved Paul bring joy and healing in our hearts. And we are grateful for his place in our lives. But we also know that in days, weeks, months, and years to come, you will heal us, and what we will be left with are the fond memories of the times we shared with Paul. We thank you for giving us a chance to spend time with Paul while he was on earth. In Jesus' name, we pray, Amen.

Obituary

Paul Henry Quinichett Jr. fell from the sky on July 30, 1960 on a loan to Paul Sr. and Sylvia.

Paul “Junie” as his loving family and close friends called him was part of Grove City High School 1978 graduating class. Paul “Junie” moved on to further his education at Franklin University. He also served in the US Airforce.

Paul “Junie” was known to be a Gentle Giant to most and was able to put a smile on anyone’s face. Although Paul “Junie” had a courageous battle with cancer as well as many obstacles. He was able to overcome them all and leave a lasting impression on all our hearts. Knowing Paul “Junie” was knowing you was always in for a surprise whenever you spoke to him. He always had a joke to tell, and you couldn’t help but laugh, and was always respectful. Paul “Junie” enjoyed football, his favorite NFL team was the Oakland Raiders, and he didn’t care about college football as much, he only like to watch it when the Big 10 Buckeyes were playing.

Paul “Junie” was a jack of all trades and loved anything he could get his hands on, from hauling and moving anything you ask him to move. Paul “Junie” will get the job done. Paul “Junie” loved and cared for his family and friends dearly. Paul “Junie” would give you the shirt off his back if anyone needed it. Paul “Junie” was the beck and call to his wife Vanessa and children as well to his loving mother and sister’s Paul “Junie” really loved to help others and if you were blessed to get to know him you will know he was very passionate man, it didn’t matter if it was a family member, friends, or stranger. He will do his best to help you.

Paul Quinichett, Jr. is preceded in death by his father, Paul Henry Quinichett, Sr.; and grandparents, Lawrence (Alma) Smith and Lacey (Alberta) Patterson.

Paul leaves to cherish his memory, wife, Vanessa Quinichett; mother, Sylvia Wooden; sisters, Paula Quinichett, Genelle (Wade) Rhynehardt, and Elizabeth Quinichett; sons, Juan (Tiffany) Holmes, Michael J. Bowles Sr., Mario (Margaret) Holmes, Marcell McElroy, and Paul Henry Quinichett III; daughter, Maria Holmes; mother-in-law, Rashida Evans; special sister-in-law, Whitney N. Evans; sister-in-law, Veronica Smith; special nephew, Bob Quinichett; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nephew, nieces, cousins, and special friends.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*
