Grandma Eloise,

The mother who helped start our family tree. The great grandma that enjoyed family bus trips to Carolinas and the beach. The brave woman who wasn't afraid of freedom of speech. The classy lady who lived for watching the young and restless. And in interactions she added caress and zest. The funny awesome woman that complimented men on being handsome. The fine lady to sit back and sip her Pepsi on ice. And if anything is liked you'd hear her say "ohhhh that's nice". Grandma Eloise and our memories we will always treasure beyond measure.

Our hearts and lives will never be the same. What a blessing you have been to me since 2006 and King since 2016. Blood couldn't make you more family! My own family have never been there for us the way you have. You loved us and protected us. You loved King so much. I have never seen love so pure and unconditional. We are forever grateful for you allowing us into your family and most importantly, your beautiful heart! Your soul is free now and pain is gone. You are missed deeply by all of us, your village mourns you and we celebrate your legacy. Until we meet again Grandma! Rest easy, say hi to Grandpa for all of us and Jr. If you happen to swing by the Motherland Heaven, please say hi to my Daddy and Grandma too. We all love you!
