

Expressions of Gratitude

The Family of Ralph Rayshawn Johnson, Jr. would like to thank all of you for your kind expressions of love and care during this difficult time.

Heart of Gold

*In memory of Ralph, a son of Detroit, a city he held so dear,
A friendly fellow with a heart of gold, his presence filled with cheer.
No stranger to any, his love embraced all, touching each life with care,
His generosity knew no bounds, a legacy beyond compare.*

*From the streets of Michigan, his spirit reached far and wide,
A beacon of compassion, in him, love will always reside.
His love for God, his family, his friends, spoke volumes loud and clear,
And the joy of sharing a meal, in his presence, always held dear.*

*Though he may be gone from sight, his memory will forever thrive,
In the hearts of those he touched, his love will continue to revive.
The echoes of his laughter, the kindness in his gaze,
Will linger on in cherished tales, through all of our days.*

*Though we'll miss him dearly, his essence will forever be,
A guiding light, a source of strength, for all who were lucky to see.
Ralph, may you find peace eternal, in the arms of heaven above,
And know that your legacy of love will endure, an unbreakable bond of love.*

Obituary

Ralph Johnson was born on May 30, 1971, to Rose Marie Garrett and Ralph Johnson, Sr., who both preceded him in life.

Ralph will be remembered by his devoted wife of 31 years, Diane Johnson; his two children, Teman and Jasmine Johnson; his three grandchildren, Jasniah, Javarian and Daymiere.

Ralph accepted the Lord into his life as his Savior at a very early age. He departed this life as a devoted member of New Covenant Believers' Church (Pastor Howard Tillman) where he served as a member of the Security Team. Ralph graduated from Job Corp and achieved his high school diploma. He went on to work as a Driver in the hospitality industry. In his free time, he worked to develop his hauling and scraping business.

The Johnson family would like to thank New Covenant Believers' Church, friends, and coworkers and for their overwhelming love and support. Ralph's willingness to help anyone in need along with his warm personality and infectious smile will be remembered forever.

My big bro, you did your job as a big brother by loving me, protecting me and guiding me. You pick me up when I fell and beat me up when I ran. You taught me how to make my first dollar, teaching me how to carry groceries to the cars of customers. That was our first job and I'll never forget our teenage days when we spent all of our money on clothes and shoes. You are always there to listen to me when I was upset and to calm me down. I thank God, because I would not be able to go through this without you. I know that Mama is rejoicing and smiling, looking down at us with no pain. You are not just a brother, you're my big brother, I love you and I will see you when I get there.

~ from your baby brother, Tony
