Obituary

Linell Chester Marshall III, was born March 6, 2020, in Columbus, Ohio at The Ohio State University Hospital.

He was a loving and caring person for him to be as young as he was. His personality was amazing and vibrant like no other. Anyone that knew him, knew that he had a smile so bright it could make anyone's day go from bad to good.

Whenever it's time to watch television, the first thing he wants to watch is either Paw Patrol, ZZZKids, Momma Trunks, or Cocomelon on YouTube.

He was very independent. If you didn't put it on the television for him, best believe he was going to do it himself, or, at least attempt to. He was helpful and was always excited to participate in any cleaning activity whether it was laundry, sweeping the floor, putting up toys, etc. He was so passionate to be a helping hand that if you got in the way of it, he would be very upset and didn't mind showing it. He was so affectionate and filled with so much love and joy. He was definitely a little rascal. A miniature rebel and sometimes rebellious when it's time for bed. Always was into something and kept everyone on their toes because you just never knew what he'll be up to next. He was our little sour patch kid. One minute he would be play fighting with you or being mean, then the next he's hugging you and showing that amazing smile that was so contagious. He was a great little and big brother and one of a kind.

He leaves behind his mother; Justice, father; Linell II, brothers; Kevin and Aakari, sister; Nova, Maw Maw Mary, Paw Paw Elliott, TT Alexis, uncles, cousins and friends.

Fat Fat, you are the light that illuminated our universe, the star that shines the brightest in the skies and you are the heart which produced unconditional love and happiness. Your family will always and forever be felt with your presence. Until we all meet again, Rest in Paradise, Our Little Superman

I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me on that Day and not to me only, but unto all those also who love His appearing.
2 Timothy 4:7-8
