

Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Ronald Cornell Taylor would like to express our gratitude for the many acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement. Perhaps you sent flowers, called, text, provided food, lifted us up in prayer or just kept us in your thoughts, no act has gone unnoticed.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.
No farewell words was spoken
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more.
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay*

Obituary

In loving memory of Ronald Cornell Taylor, son of Cornell Taylor and Margaret Montgomery. Brother to his aunts and uncles (Terri Williams, Beatrice Williams, Kenny Montgomery, Charles Williams, Tonitta, Jeffrey, Michael, Harriet) and numerous amount of cousins and other family members that has passed away and his sons Ronrico Taylor Keyes and Lamontee Haggins & Daughter Iris Keyes and his girlfriend Stephanie Owens.

We known Ron to be a blaze of sunshine on a cloudy day and you'll never know he was going through something until it was too late. He loved to skate and walk and play chess with his aunts and uncles and go swimming and just have fun in the sun. But he was finally called home to Lord to meet with all the family and friends who he missed throughout the years. He's soaring through the sky now like the angel he always was. Rest in peace Ronald Cornell Taylor.
