I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void.
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good time, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free

Obituary

God came by on Sunday night and whispered in her ear and she accepted the call. She left this life from Adena Hospital in Chillicothe, Ohio on January 29, 2023.

Vickie was born and reared in Portsmouth, Ohio. She graduated from Portsmouth High School in 1980. She attended The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. She became gainfully employed with Rosemount School for Girls, United Methodist Children's Home, and finally the State Department of Youth Services. She retired from DYS due to health reasons of which she had 25 years of service. After retirement she worked part-time as an assistant teacher for Catholic Social Services. It was obvious she wanted and did work with troubled youth. She was a hard worker and very compassionate to her fellow man. She would do anything for anybody. She had a heart of gold.

Vickie was baptized April 17, 1972 In Portsmouth, Ohio by the late Bishop Q.L. Wilson at the Greater Emmanuel Church. She sang in the youth choir, the Sunbeams. She lead the song "I Don't Know About You, but I'm Somebody." That song was a testament to her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents; Dorothy A (Cobb) and Roscoe Tyler Sr., lifelong companion; William Samuels Jr., and special nephew; Julian Kennedy.

She leaves to mourn, her son; Isaiah Samuels and daughter; Dorothy Samuels both of Columbus, Ohio, three sisters; Kay Tyler and Wendy Tyler both of Columbus, Ohio and Kenya Green of Douglasville, Georgia, four brothers; Roscoe Tyler Jr., James Tyler and Michael (Missy) Tyler all of Columbus, Ohio and Joshua (Brittany) Tyler of Douglasville, Georgia, step mother; Gwendolyn Tyler of Douglasville, Georgia, special son; William Samuels III of Youngstown, Ohio and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Vickie will be missed, but we are confident she has another building eternal in the Heavens where there is no more pain and suffering. She is now rejoicing and has accepted her healing.
