If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.
No farewell words was spoken
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more.
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay

Obituary

William H. Redd Jr. age 78, born November 1, 1944, in Iaeger, WV. He went home to be with the Lord on April 15, 2023, with his loved ones by his side.

William was a faithful and dedicated member of Faith Mission United Holiness Church where he played the bass guitar for devotional services.

He served in the military and retired as a security guard at Rhodes Stater Officer Tower. William was a loving and devoted father and family member. Some of his greatest joys were spending time with loved ones, playing the bass, going to church, and simply making others smile along with many other things. He was loving, patient, and his smile was infectious.

Tony as his family and friends called him was preceded in death by his father; William H. Redd Sr., mother; Mary M. Adams and wife; Doris J. Redd.

He is survived by his children; Alicia Redd, William H. Redd III and Tamika Redd, siblings; Jackie Adams, Kathy Adams, and Linda Adams. He had several grandkids and great grandkids he loved dearly.
