

Acknowledgement

To all of our family, friends and loved ones, please know we appreciate every call, every meal, every tear, and every smile. We feel truly blessed by the ministry and constant care bestowed upon our family as Rhonda made her transition.

Thank You

*We had a wonderful mother whose love was everlasting.
You were always by our side to give us support,
confidence and help.*

*For as long as we can remember you were so strong, so sensitive, and so pretty. You always provided stability within our family and as well our extended family.
You were always full of laughter, full of tears, full of joy, and full of love. You were our teacher, nurse, confidant and friend.
You were everything a mother should be and more. Whatever we have become is because of you. We thank you and we will miss you every day.*

*Love you mommy
P.S. Give daddy a hug and kiss from us!
Love Laina and Lisa*

The Obituary

Rhonda Carol (Haley) Cochran was born March 23, 1952 to Clarence and Anita Haley in Beckley, West Virginia. The family moved to Cincinnati in 1953. While growing up in Cincinnati Rhonda spent most of her childhood with family and friends. To family and friends she was known as "Rhonda Carol or supercat". She spent a lot of time with Diane and Vickie. She had lasting friendship with Angie and Betty. Rhonda also helped raise her siblings. Rhonda would always ride with her dad to go visit her many cousins and aunts and uncles.

Rhonda's junior year in high school, Anita Mae moved her and her siblings to Columbus. That's where her baby brother Gary Brian was born. She helped her mom look after him. Rhonda attended and graduated from Eastmoor High School. After high school she worked many jobs. Wasn't long when she met the love of her life Lance Cochran. They married January 18, 1974. From their love they had two beautiful daughters Laina & Lisa Cochran. To family they were called little Lance and little Rhonda.

Rhonda loved to smile, laugh, talk and spend time with family and friends. She loved to read, do crossword puzzles in pen. She loved to watch HGTV, murder mysteries and jeopardy, play cards, and she was always listening to music. Rhonda went to every school or sports event for her kids. When grandchildren came along she wanted to be called "meme". She loved her grandchildren and was always there for whatever they may need. The last 30 years she worked at Butler, Cincione, DiCuccio Law office where she met some wonderful co-workers that became long-time friends.

Rhonda leaves to mourn her loss daughters Laina Cochran, Lisa (Maurice) Thomas, Siblings Gloria (Cecil) Crockett, Debra Harris, Vincent (Virginia) Haley, Gary (Francine) Haley, Clarence McAlpin, adopted daughters of her heart, Janina Thornton and Shana Byrd, step mom Alberta Haley, In laws Gary (Saundra) Cochran, Candy Cochran, grandchildren Jayden Thomas, Jaila Dorsey, Javon Dorsey, and Haley Thomas. Nephews Keith Haley, Martin (Jan) Cochran, Michael (Melissa) Cochran, Maurice (Lonita) Tuff, Daniel (Janel) Haley, Seth (Harmony) Haley, Jamie Portman, Simeon Haley, Silas Haley. Nieces Nikita Bland, Jasmine Cochran, Lydia (Wesley) Brubaker, Aisha Haley, Naomi (Brandon) Pozsgai, Sarah and Phoebe Haley, and Kathy Winstead; host of family and friends.
