The Broken Chain

I little knew this morning,
God was going to call your name,
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I do the same.

You left me beautiful memories
Your love is still my guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You're always at my side.

It broke my heart to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of me went with you,
The day God called you home.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Acknowledgements

The family is extremely grateful for all acts of kindness displayed during this difficult time. Whether you sent a card or flowers, spoke comforting words, lent a shoulder, whispered a prayer, or simply kept us in your thoughts, it has not gone unnoticed.

Obituary

James "Jimmy" Mack Jr., 73, went home to be with the Lord on January 8, 2024. James believed in God whole-heartedly, and fought until the end.

James was born in Youngstown, Ohio on September 11, 1950 to the late James and Daisy Mack. He was the first child of four children. James loved his sports and was a die-hard fan of the Cleveland Browns, Cleveland Cavaliers, and Ohio State Buckeyes.

James is survived by the love of his life, his devoted wife Anita J. Mack, son James Mack III, step-sons Chester Friday, William Adams, and Walter Adams, daughter Victoria Mack, step-daughter J'Nitra Adams-Thompson, sister Lisa McKinney, sisters-in-law Pat Hall, Ann Valentine, Connie Phillips, Frederica Hall-Sawyer, and Sheri Hall, brothers-in-law Frank Rucker, Fred Hall III, Wayne Sawyer, and George Hall, 21 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

James served 10 years in the United States Air Force, and retired after 32 years at the post office. He started his career at the post office as a truck driver and worked his way up to position of Supervisor of Transportation.

James is preceded in death by his parents, son Robert Mack, sisters Lori Mack and Linda Rucker, mother-in-law Marion Hall, sister-in-law Cornelia Crawford, brother-in-law Willie Crawford, step-daughter Tasha Burt, and aunts Janie Renwick and Trudy Mack.
