To My Guardian Angel

Watch over me & protect me from harm
as you always done;
My hearts sorrow will last forever
but the strength of your love will guide me and keep me standing tall
The pain seems unreal thinking you're still here,
but your gone;
My Guardian Angel
I wish I could hear your voice one more time;
to laugh with you again is something I'd die for but I know that will never be Now I have a amazing Guardian Warrior Angel always watching and protecting over me

Obituary

Tyrone Maurice Garrett was born in Detroit, Wayne on November 4, 1987; second born to Joel Lindsey and Diane Renae Garrett.

Tyrone loved those who truly loved him, and he always showed it. He loved talking about money, basketball; Isiah Thomas was one of his favorites, but he also talked about just always making sure you leveled up in life.

Tyrone loved music even though he could not dance. He listens to various artist from Zapp and Roger; The Gap Band; Scarface; and many more.

Tyrone always had something to teach you no matter who you were; there was always a life lesson to be learned. Take his life for example; growing up in Detroit, Michigan with his family dealing with hard times, having to grow up fast; to being able to become a hard-working man who got to become a grandfather an away from the hard streets. That's hard work and dedication in one's life itself. This is a life lesson you could only see with your 2 eyes to believe and he was able to teach the ones around him this lesson in a beautiful, amazing way. Family meant the most too him!!

A beautiful life gone so soon but so amazing & rememberable; Tyrone was a very intelligent man; a man all about loyalty; a man of truth and no lies. He believed in what he said, and he stood on it.

Tyrone was preceded in death by his mother Diane Renae Garrett; Father Joel Lindsey; Brother Demetrius Deshawn Garrett; Uncle Willie Edward; grandparents George Lockett and Lorraine Bryant; Cousin Tameka Manns.

Tyrone leaves to cherish his memories; daughter Tyzhare' Michele Loraine Garrett; sister, Lacresha Garrett; granddaughter Tymier Renae Felicity Garrett; niece, Pristine Graham; step kids; Asia, Dontaveya, Deontae siblings of Tyzhare', child's mother; Desree Baldwin; girlfriend; Anita; greatly loved cousins, uncles, aunts, and friends.
