Ola Mae Luckie

*"A virtuous woman is hard to find and worth far more than rubies."
Proverbs 31:10b*

This is the legacy of Ola Mae Luckie, affectionately known as "Goodie". She was born Ola Mae Crutchfield in Hillsboro, Georgia on October 11, 1928 to the late Robert G. Crutchfield and Beauty Crutchfield. Ola had a deep abiding faith in God. It was this faith that guided her Christian life. As a longtime member of the Mount Calvary Baptist Church, Ola served as deaconess, usher, member of the senior choir and woman's guild. She was on several church committees that raised funds for the people of Ethiopia and Haiti. She faithfully attended Sunday school, Bible study, and Wednesday night prayer meetings. Additionally, she cooked in the church kitchen, where she was known for her fried corn.

Having retired from the United Telephone Company after 21 years where she worked in Directory Advertising, Ola remained a pillar of the community through selfless acts of kindness and generosity, helping anyone who crossed her path. Ola was a true matriarch. Her love and devotion for her family and friends were unmatched.

On Saturday, January 15, 2022, Ola made her homegoing journey. She leaves to cherish her memories, two sons, Rick (Penny) Luckie of Cincinnati, Ohio and Dejuan Luckie of Mansfield, Ohio; grandsons: Ramaud Luckie of Cincinnati and Dashan Luckie of Mansfield; great grandchildren, Michael, Courtney, Tyanna, and Droness; sister-in-law, Bonnie Crutchfield of Mansfield and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Ola was preceded in death by her husband of 47 years, Rudolph Luckie; and six siblings, including Dollie B. Whitening, Emma D. Watkins, Clarence Crutchfield Sr., Jimmy Lee Crutchfield, Robert Crutchfield Jr., Ulysees Crutchfield Sr.; grandson, Donte Harris "Luckie" and Patricia Linzy, who was like a daughter.

"Many women have done wonderful things, but you've outclassed them all!" Charm can mislead and beauty soon fades. The woman to be admired and praised is the woman who lives in the Fear-of-God. Give her everything she deserves! Adorn her life with praises!"
