Shawn Anthony Madison

Shawn A. Madison was born on May 12, 1950 in Detroit, Michigan to George Shoulders and Janice Madison.

Shawn was a 1968 graduate of Mansfield Senior High School. He played and loved football, basketball, and softball. He worked at Tappan, TJ's, Maxwell's, City of Mansfield, Mansfield Park District, Papa Johnny's and Richie's and was well known by many. Shawn was a referee for over 30 years for basketball and flag football and he played softball at Cyclops and participated in the Soul Brothers Tournament for many years. He spent his free time playing cards, hanging out with friends, watching sports and old western movies. He acquired the nickname "HONDO" while watching a John Wayne movie. "HONDO" or "HON" will forever be Shawn's legacy.

Shawn is preceded in death by his parents, Janice Marie Stevens and Wayne Eugene Stevens Sr.; father, George Shoulders; brother, Wayne Vincent Stevens Jr. and Grandmother, Nora Madison.

Shawn is survived by daughters, Leslie Williams, Susan Vickers, Colleen Vickers and Iesha Brown; son, Shawn Vickers; sisters, April L. Jackson, Shelley G. Arnold and Carla Turner; brother, Scott E. Stevens; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, one great-great grandson, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute to Shawn

You never said I'm leaving, you never said goodbye, you were gone before I knew it and only God knew why.

A million times I needed you, a million times I cried. If love alone could have saved you, you would have never died.

In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place that no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of me went with you, when God called you home.

I will always love you, forever in my heart and spirit.

From your daughter, Leslie
