Don't Quit

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is strange with its twists and turns
As every one of us sometimes learns
And many a failure comes about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with another blow.

Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell just how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.

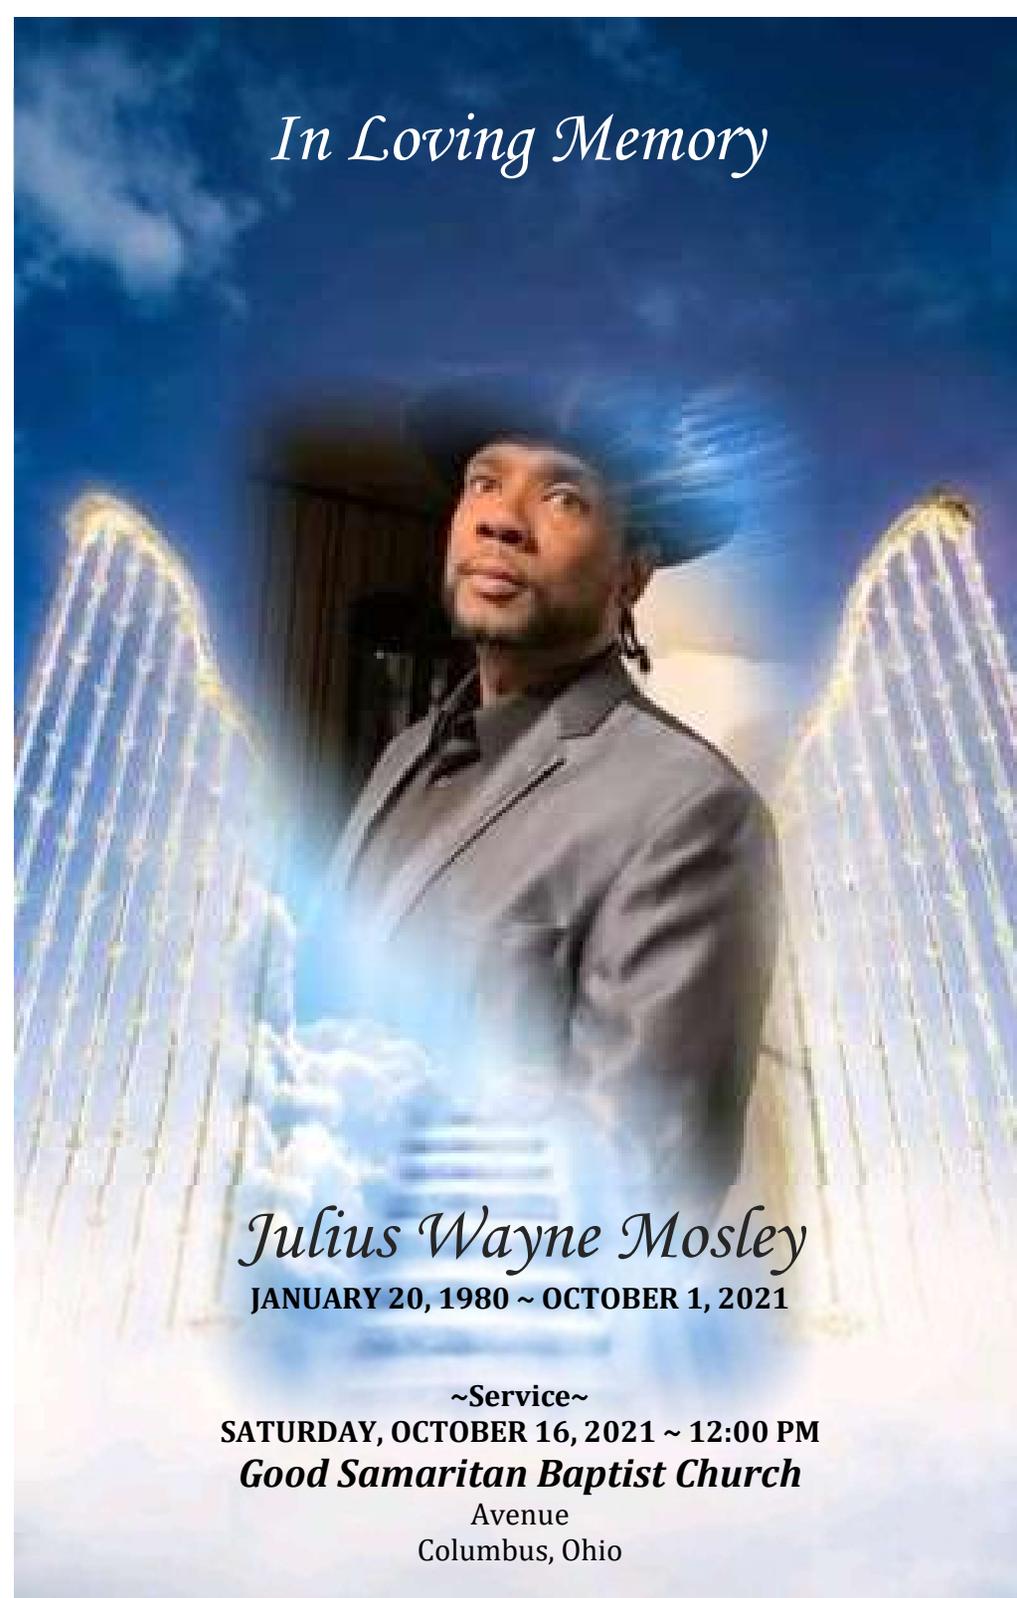

For all the sad words of tongue or pen
The saddest are these: "It might have been!"

The Obituary

Julius Mosley was born January 20, 1980. Julius was named after his grandfather. He was so full of life. Julius was a former student of Columbus Public Schools.

Julius was a father of five, with four girls and one son. Julius loved his children and had a good relationship with them. Julius also loved animals and was a certified animal tech. Julius was a really different young man. His way of saying things was amazing. He could and would try to turn a bad situation into a good outcome.

Julius turned his life around and was always telling me by his pass he wish he could make a difference with young people to save them from doing and going down the wrong way. He wish he could make the world a better place by making a difference.

Julius is preceded in death by his grandmother, Loretta Mosley; grandfather, Julius Mosley; brother, Eric Ross; Uncles, Mike Alston, Julius Joseph, and Gary Mosley.

Loving memories are cherished by his mother, Lorainne Steele; stepfather, Herbert Steele; brother, Ervin Ross; step mother, ....Ross; four daughters, Daja, JeVeah, Amila, and Zion; son, Julius; five aunts; five uncles; and a host of friends and family.
