Ruby P. Shoulders

Ruby (Prater) Shoulders was born January 9, 1941 to the late Thomas and Mildred Prater in Knoxville, Tennessee. She moved to Mansfield, Ohio at an early age. Ruby was employed as a Registered Nurse, serving in private duty for over 40 years before retiring.

Ruby loved to cook and bake. The Food Network Channel was her favorite station to watch. Becoming a Licensed Nurse was a proud moment and accomplishment she cherished.

Ruby is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 64 years, Joseph Shoulder; daughter L'Tanya Dandy of Mansfield; three grandchildren, Earl Dandy III and Erika Dandy, both of Mansfield, and Erik (Kasi) Dandy of Kentucky; nine great grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; her cousin, Elaine of Detroit, Michigan, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Ruby is preceded in death by three brothers, Maurice Elder and Marcus and Thomas Prater; and one sister, Geneva Prater.

Life Is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys.
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.
