

Acknowledgement

The family is extremely grateful for all acts of kindness displayed during this difficult time. Whether you sent a card or flowers; spoke comforting words; lent a shoulder; whispered a prayer; or simply kept us in your thoughts it has not gone unnoticed.

Special thanks to Grant Hospital, TWV Local 208 Retiree's, Magnum Force MC, Saddle Tramps MC, and Just US MC.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

The Obituary

Florence B. Washington was born July 9, 1934 in Yazoo City, Mississippi to the parents of Columbus and Georgia Washington. Florence graduated from St. Francis Catholic High School in Yazoo, Mississippi. She was one of twelve children.

Florence moved to Columbus, Ohio in the early 1950's. She worked various jobs until she was hired at the Ohio State University Main Hospital as an Attending Nurse. Florence married Chavez Moncrief, Jr., and to this union seven children were born. Florence later married James A. White and he preceded her in death. Florence loved Love Zion Missionary Baptist Church, where she attended regularly and faithfully. Florence also loved to go shopping, traveling, wearing fancy hats, watching OSU football and basketball games. She also loved watching Christmas cartoons, Gomer Pyle, Andy Griffith, Dancing with the Stars, and of course taking pictures. Golden Corral, Cracker Barrel, Subway and the Cornel (KFC) were her favorite places to eat, and most of all helping people in any way she could. She was also known to be a prankster.

Florence is preceded in death by her husband, James A. White; and daughters, Claudean Moncrief and Cheryl Moncrief.

Florence leaves to cherish her memories, children, Michael (Joyce) Moncrief of Columbus, Ohio, Linda Moncrief of Columbus, Ohio, Harold (Melissa) Moncrief of Holly Springs, Mississippi, Anthony Moncrief of Columbus, Ohio, Claudette Moncrief of Columbus, Ohio; 14 grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; 2 great-great grandchildren; best friends and confidants, Annie Chaney and Lela Sealey; and a host nieces and nephews.

Florence lived a long good life and will truly be missed but her smile, soft and encouraging words will be with us all forever.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*
