Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go.*

The Obituary

Ms. Cynthia JoAnn Wolfe, 72, passed away on April 18, 2021 after a courageous battle with Dementia. Cynthia was born on May 27, 1948 in Youngstown, OH to James and Inez Johnson.

She is preceded in death by her parents; grandmothers, Josephine Robinson and Flossy James; aunt, Ida Mae Gilmer and goddaughter, Shanna Miles.

Cynthia graduated from The Rayen High School in Youngstown, OH in 1966. She continued vocational studies and later became a Licensed Practical Nurse where she worked for 40 years at Cafaro Hospital in Youngstown, OH and MedCentral Hospital in Mansfield, OH. After retiring in 2008, she continued to enjoy shopping, reading, traveling, playing Bingo, and spending time with family & friends before she moved back to Youngstown in 2010.

Cynthia was the definition of strength and thoughtfulness. Her strength was displayed through her ability to deal with any hardship and come out better. Unbeknownst to most, she marked everyone's birthday in her kitchen calendar every single year. Whether she remembered to send a card or not, their day was important to her.

Cynthia is survived by daughter, Courtney Wolfe (Jersey City, NJ); brother, Vaughn (Linda) Robinson of Mansfield, OH; cousins, Devlyn Jones (Youngstown, OH), Zachery "Buck" McDuffie (Youngstown, OH), Valerie Barnes (Cincinnati, OH), Jean Smith (Youngstown, OH), Loretta Prince (Canton, OH), Rhonda Gilmer (Youngstown, OH); niece, Jessica Robinson (Columbus, OH); nephew, Vaughn Robinson Jr. (Mansfield, OH), and a host of relatives.
